Total production over their 100 years of operation reached nearly 60 million watches, which is nearly 50% of ALL the jeweled watches produced by American watch companies! This makes Elgin one of the most commonly collected vintage watches since there are still so many examples available at reasonable prices.. The watch functions well & keeps good time It runs only ten hours on one winding and then has to be wound again.. Here is a 1938 Elgin size 12, 15 jewel pocket watch in a very nice 25 year gold filled case.. In fact, Elgin produced approximately one-half of the total number of better-quality pocket watches manufactured in the United States.. About this time an anti-trust law was passed and the watch case manufacturers formed a boycott against.
